FINANCE AND TRADE.

FINANCIAL MATTERS offer not a single novelty, outside of the Ohio electhe the result of which is expected to have a very important influence upon the immediate fature of our financial policy. Different persons argue good or il from this according to their views. Most of the banks report money stringent; one bank is overflowing with uty. Collections are better than at the opening of the week; one house on south Frontstrest received remittances n Wednesday to the amount of $10,000. White, The Vicksburg Herald, of Tuesday, the The Vicksburg Hersid, of Tuesday, the twelfth, says: "Captein Swivel, of the John B. Maude, was in the city yesterday, and made a proposition to the cotton exchange to put his boat in the trade between here and New Orleans, provided they would sustain him by giving him their cotton, which he agrees to carry at seventy-five cents. The proposition is un 'er consideration."

The St. Louis Republican says of the Mary Bell: "The Mary Bell, with water and fuel en board, draws on an average, three feet eight ocard, draws on an average, three feet eight niches, showing that she is a remarkably light draft boat for one of such great size and lidity of hull. It is estimated that when aded to five feet she will have seven hunloaded to five feet she will have seven hundred tons on board; six feet, twelve hundred tons; seven feet, seventeen hundred tons; eight feet, twenty-five hundred tons; nine feet, thirty-three hundred tons; ten feet, four thousand tons. On her main deck and gdards she will carry seven thousand oales of cotton, and in all, a total of ten thousand bates. She is the largest steamer, it is asserted, ever built for a western or s utbern river by six hundred tons capacity. Captain Hicks states that he has contracted to carry, during the present 'cotton season,' one hundred and thirty thousand bates of cotton to New Orleans from Helena, Chicot, White river and other points on the lower Mississippl."

The Mary Bell. Captain Hicks's new steamer is the largest took on the western waters. This elegant and solution steamer leaves St. Louis to-morrow or this city, and leaves Wednesday next on er maiden trip in the Memphis and New Orleans trade. The following telegram, received last night, exp ains itself:

HENRY ROSE CARTER, (C. E. and Assis'ant in Applied Math., University Va.). Instructor in Pure and Applied Math RO. L. BROWN (University Va.), Instructor in Book-Keeping, English, etc. We understand that Mr. Wm. D. Cabeell a gentleman of wide reputation as the Founder and Principal of Norwood High School, has engaged the services in the work of Instruction of F. Key Meade. Thomas A. Seddos, and H. R. Carter, all teachers of experience, and distinguished for special attainments in their respective departments. Norwood School is distinctly preparatory to the University, and we recognize with piessure the success of the school, as evinced by the high standing and rapid progress of many of Mr. Cabells pupils, who have passed from his hands into ours. With all confidence, therefore, we recommend the school conducted by Mr. Cabell to those who wish to have their sons thoroughly trained for the University, or for any sphere of higher culture.
